The Curtin Indigenous Partnerships Recommendation Award for 2018 will provide the following support for up to a maximum of one year:

If you receive a Centrelink payment, you should declare to Centrelink any scholarships or awards you are offered.

The Australian Tax Office has a “Is your Scholarship taxable?” tool on their website to help you determine if your award is taxable. For expert advice please contact the Australian Taxation Office or your accountant.

CONDITIONS THAT NEED TO BE MET TO KEEP YOUR AWARD

- 1) You must remain in an eligible undergraduate degree at Curtin University. If you intend to change courses, you are required to seek approval for this change from the Scholarships Office.
- 2) Unless there are exceptional circumstances you must:
 - Maintain a full-time enrolment of at least 75 credits per study period at Curtin University. If any study is undertaken below 75 credits, you are required to seek approval for this change from the Scholarships Office.
 - Maintain a course weighted average (CWA) of at least 50 and pass all enrolled units each study period. Academic monitoring of scholarship recipients will occur each study period.
- 3) If you do not meet the above enrolment conditions, either voluntarily (e.g. by withdrawing from your course or units) or involuntarily (e.g. termination from your course due to unsatisfactory course progress or suspension, termination or expulsion due to misconduct), you will become ineligible for continuation of this award. The award will cease immediately and you will be required to repay any stipend awarded for the most recent study period.
- 4) Leave of absence is permitted for up to a maximum of 12 months over the duration of the award. If you intend to take a leave of absence, you must apply for your leave of absence through your faculty.
- 5) The Curtin Indigenous Partnerships Recommendation Award is not transferable to another university.

Unless there are exceptional circumstances, if you have unsatisfactory progress or breach the scholarship conditions, you shall be ineligible to retain the award.

Exceptional circumstances must be forwarded in writing to the Scholarships Office, along with supporting documentation (e.g. medical, counselling). Requests will then be assessed by the Scholarships Office and you will be notified of the outcome once a decision has been reached.
