CALD Health Disparities PhD Scholarship - Closed

CALD Health Disparities PhD Scholarship is now closed.

Status: Closed
Applications open: CLOSED
Applications close: CLOSED

About this scholarship

Description/Applicant information

This PhD scholarship is funded by Research Office at Curtin (RoC) and the Faculty of Health Science:

The ARC Linkage Project – Reducing Health Disparities for CALD People aims to develop a greater intercultural understanding of migrants from non-English speaking backgrounds and the factors that predict poor health outcomes related to blood-borne viruses (BBV) and other sexually transmitted infections (STI).

Student type

- Current Students
- Future Students

Faculty

- Humanities
- Health Sciences

Course type

- Postgraduate Research

Gender

Non-gender specific

Nationality

- Australian Citizen
- Australian Permanent Resident
- Permanent Humanitarian Visa
- International students
- New Zealand Citizen

Scholarship base

http://scholarships.curtin.edu.au
• Merit Based

Maximum number awarded
1

Value
The successful student shall receive a stipend valued $27,082.00 (2018) per annum for 3 years.

Eligibility criteria

• Essential: BSc Hons, MPH (distinction), MPhil, or related degrees in health sciences or related disciplines. Must be able to be located in WA. Must be able to commit to full time study.
• Desirable: Prior experience working with CALD

Conditions that need to be met to keep your scholarship

• Full time enrolment
• To keep good academic standing
• Must be located in WA

How to apply

Application process
Please email Professor Alison Reid (Alison.Reid@curtin.edu.au) an express of interest with:
Cover letter (including experience, interest in the area, personal goals related to research), CV, interview including written assessment.

Need more information?
Prof Alison Reid; 9266 1361, Alison.Reid@curtin.edu.au

http://scholarships.curtin.edu.au