2. Commencement

- 2.1 Unless there are exceptional circumstances, Recipients offered a Scholarship are expected to commence the degree within the dates specified in the letter of offer or the Scholarship may be withdrawn by the University.
- 2.2 Approval to commence the Scholarship after the dates specified in the letter of offer of the awarding year must be obtained from the Associate Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Research Excellence (or delegate).

3. Period of Support

- 3.1 Recipients are entitled to Research Stipend, a maximum of three (3) years full-time equivalent study if undertaking an eligible Research Doctorate and a maximum of two (2) years full-time equivalent study if undertaking a Masters by Research. A Recipient's period of support is detailed in the Recipient's Scholarship Offer.

- 3.2 The duration of the Scholarship will be reduced by any period of study undertaken towards the degree prior to the commencement of the Scholarship.
- 3.3 The duration of the Scholarship will be increased by periods of paid sick or maternity leave approved by the University, as defined in clause 15.1.3 and 15.1.4.
- 3.4 The maximum period of entitlement is calculated from the enrolment date.

4. Completion Scholarships

- 4.1 Research Doctorate Recipients making satisfactory progression may apply to the University for a Completion Scholarship for a period of up to six months where the study exceeds durations listed in clause 3.1.
- 4.2 Completion Scholarships are granted on a case-by-case basis.
- 4.3 A request for a Completion Scholarship will be submitted no sooner than six (6) months before the Scholarship end date and no less than four weeks prior to the end date of the Scholarship. Completion Scholarships will not be approved if requested after the Scholarship end date.
- 4.4 Changes to course enrolment, as defined in clauses 6, 7 and 8, do not constitute sufficient grounds for a subsequent extension
- 4.5 Employment commitments, as defined in clause 10, cannot be accepted as grounds for an extension of duration of the Scholarship.

5. Value of Scholarship

5.1 Tuition Fees, stipend and additional allowances

- 5.1.1 The value of the Scholarship will be detailed in the Recipient's Scholarship letter of offer.
- 5.1.2 The University will administer to each full time Recipient an approved stipend rate that is exempt from taxation. Where a full-time Recipient is not enrolled over the full period of the year, the University will provide the annual stipend for the period in which study is undertaken for that year.
- 5.1.3 The Stipend rates may be indexed each year in accordance with the HESA Act 2003.

5.2 Funding outside the Scholarship

- 5.2.1 The Recipient is permitted to:
 - a) obtain funds for fieldwork, equipment or other expenses not covered by the Scholarship;
 - b) obtain funding for overseas travel costs from other Australian Government awards or any other source; and
 - c) receive income derived from part-time work undertaken within the Conditions set by the University as per clause 10.

6. Changing Course

- 6.1. Curtin University may approve a Recipient's request to change research area providing:
 - 6.1.1. the new research area is one of the University's areas of research concentration;
 - 6.1.2. there is agreement between the relevant two Heads of Enrolling Schools who will be impacted by the change; and
 - 6.1.3. where the applicable Scholarship is funded by an External Funding Party, approval to change course must be provided by the External Funding Party before the request can be considered by the University.
- 6.2. Where a Recipient changes course of study to another HDR degree at the same level, the period of support remains unchanged. This includes changes from one field of education to another. For example, a Recipient who has completed one year of a Masters by Research and then changes to a different Masters by Research will only be entitled to a further 12 months full-time equivalent study.

- 6.3. Scholarships may not be transferred to another University. Recipients are expected to complete their candidature at Curtin University.

7. Conversion from a Masters by Research Degree to a Research Doctorate Degree

- 7.1. Where a Recipient commences studies in a Masters by Research degree and then upgrades to a Research Doctorate, the Recipient's total period of support under the Scholarship will be extended to the maximum period of support provided to a Research Doctorate Recipient as detailed in (3) of these Conditions.
- 7.2. A conversion may be sought where:
 - 7.2.1. a Recipient who has achieved candidacy in a Masters by Research is deemed to be undertaking research equivalent to doctoral standards;
 - 7.2.2. there is no break between the candidature for the Masters by Research degree and the Research Doctorate degree unless the interval is covered by a period of suspension; and
 - 7.2.3. the research undertaken by the Recipient while enrolled in the Masters by Research is modified to meet the requirements for the Research Doctorate.

8. Conversion from a Research Doctorate Degree to a Masters by Research Degree

- 8.1 Where a Recipient elects or is required, for academic or personal reasons, to change their enrolment from a Research Doctorate to a Masters by Research, the Recipient's period of support under the Scholarship will be reduced to the maximum period of support provided to a Masters by Research Recipient as detailed in clause (3) of these Conditions.

9. Suspension of Scholarship

- 9.1 Recipients may apply for a suspension of their Scholarship for up to a maximum of 12 months. The approval of suspensions will be at the discretion of the University.
- 9.2 Where the applicable Scholarship is funded by an External Funding Party, approval to suspend the Scholarship must be provided by the External Funding Party.
- 9.3 In exceptional circumstances, Recipients may apply for suspensions of their Scholarship beyond 12 months, and the Associate Deputy Vice Chancellor, Research Excellence must be satisfied that the exceptional circumstances are beyond the Recipient's control and warrant a further suspension of the Scholarship.
- 9.4 Recipients are not normally allowed suspension of their Scholarship within six (6) months of taking up the Scholarship or prior to having their candidacy approved.
- 9.5 Where relevant, periods of suspension approved pursuant to clause 9.1 will be covered by a Leave of Absence.
- 9.6 The University may suspend the Scholarship if the Recipient:
 - 9.6.1 has been placed on Conditional status by the University, and has failed to meet those conditions within the specified timeframe;
 - 9.6.2 has failed to obtain approval for overseas travel; and/or
 - 9.6.3 has failed to resume study at the University on the return date specified after a period of approved research off-campus and/or outside Australia as detailed in clause 11.
- 9.7 The Scholarship stipend will not be back paid during the suspension period, per clause 9.6, if a Recipient is re-instated to Good Standing.

10. Employment

- 10.1 The University does not require Recipients to undertake employment.
- 10.2 In agreed circumstances, the University may permit a Recipient to undertake a limited amount of University teaching or other work, as long as these activities do not interfere with progress in the HDR course, and where relevant are consistent with the conditions of the Recipient's student visa.
- 10.3 There is no limit on the income a Recipient can receive from part-time employment. Recipients are expected to seek independent taxation advice relating to such employment.
- 10.4 A full-time Recipient is permitted to undertake during weekdays no more than eight hours part-time paid employment between 9.00am to 5.00pm. This excludes university holidays.
- 10.5 Recipients are expected to dedicate four days a week to study.
- 10.6 Fractional-time or casual academic-equated appointments will not be permitted unless there is compliance with clause 10.4.
- 10.7 Volunteer work or service to University committees will not be permitted unless there is compliance with clause 10.4.

11. Research Off-Campus and/or outside Australia

- 11.1 The University may approve Recipients conducting up to 12 months of their research off-campus and/or outside Australia if:
 - 11.1.1 the research is essential for completion of the degree.
 - 11.1.2 appropriate risk management is undertaken;
 - 11.1.3 there is adequate supervision;
 - 11.1.4 the Recipient remains enrolled; and
 - 11.1.5 the candidacy has been approved and the appropriate ethics clearance has been obtained.
- 11.2 In the situation where Recipients have to conduct more than 12 months of their research off-campus and/ or outside Australia, Recipients will require approval from the Enrolling School.
- 11.3 Part-time Scholarship Recipients seeking to conduct research outside of Australia will require approval from the Associate Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Research Excellence.
- 11.4 For research outside of Australia, International Recipients on a student visa will contact Student Services, International Student Visas to seek advice to ensure that their student visa remains valid for their return to Australia.
- 11.5 Failure to resume study at the University on the date specified for return after a period of approved off-campus research may result in the Scholarship being terminated as detailed in clause 13.

12. Research at Other Organisations

- 12.1 The University may approve a Recipient conducting a substantial amount of research at organisations outside the higher education sector provided that adequate support, supervision, training, and research freedom for the Recipient is available at the other organisation and on the understanding that the University will still be responsible for the Recipient.
- 12.2 The rights to intellectual property should be resolved prior to commencement at the other organisation.
- 12.3 The required ethics approval from the University will be obtained prior to conducting this research.

13. Termination of Scholarship

- 13.1 The Scholarship will be terminated in the following circumstances:

- 13.1.1 on the day the thesis is submitted for examination or at the end of the Scholarship, whichever is earlier;
 - 13.1.2 if the Recipient ceases to meet the eligibility requirements specified per clause 1 of these Conditions, other than during a period in which the Scholarship has been suspended or during a period of approved leave;
 - 13.1.3 if in the opinion of the University, or the External Funding Party, whichever of the two entities is responsible for funding the Scholarship, the course of study is not being carried out with competence and diligence or in accordance with the offer of the Scholarship;
 - 13.1.4 if the University has suspended the Scholarship and the Recipient fails to demonstrate progress within a reasonable time frame;
 - 13.1.5 on the death or incapacity of the Recipient, or course withdrawal;
 - 13.1.6 if the University determines the Recipient has committed serious misconduct, including but not limited to the provision of false or misleading information;
 - 13.1.7 if the Recipient does not resume study at the conclusion of a period of suspension or does not make arrangements to extend the period of suspension;
 - 13.1.8 if the Recipient accepts another equivalent award, scholarship or salary to undertake their HDR providing a benefit greater than 75% of the base stipend rate; and/or
 - 13.1.9 if the Recipient ceases to be a full-time student and when approval has not been obtained from the institution to hold the Scholarship on a part-time basis.
- 13.2 If the Scholarship is terminated, it cannot be re-activated unless the termination occurred in error.

14. Eligibility for Concurrent Scholarships

- 14.1 A Recipient may receive a concurrent scholarship to undertake their HDR if the concurrent award or scholarship provides a benefit less than 75% of the base RTP Stipend Scholarship rate.
- 14.2 Income earned from sources unrelated to the course of study is not subject to 14.1.

15. Leave Entitlements

- 15.1 Recipients are entitled to the following leave entitlements:
 - 15.1.1 receive up to 20 working days paid recreation leave and 10 working days paid sick leave for each year of the Scholarship.
 - 15.1.2 sick leave entitlements may also be used to cover leave for Recipients with family caring responsibilities. Recipients are required to take a Leave of Absence from their HDR course for periods of extended sick leave.
 - 15.1.3 Recipients who have completed 12 months of their Scholarship are entitled to a maximum of 60 working days paid maternity leave during the duration of the Scholarship. This paid leave may also be approved if the Recipient has adopted a child. Maternity leave must be taken no earlier than eight (8) weeks prior to the expected birth/adoption date and conclude no later than 80 working days after the actual birth/adoption date of the child. The maternity leave will be paid at the rate of the Research Stipend Scholarship is administered to the Recipient i.e. part-time Recipients will be paid pro-rata for the 60 day duration.
 - 15.1.4 Recipients who are partners of women giving birth while receiving a Scholarship and who have completed 12 months of their Scholarship are entitled to a period of 10 working days paid parenting leave at the time of the birth or adoption. This period of leave is to be taken anytime in the 80 working days immediately after the birth or adoption of the child. The leave will be paid at the rate of the Research Stipend Scholarship is administered to the Recipient i.e. part-time Recipients will be paid pro-rata for the 10 day duration.

16. Erroneous Overpayment of Scholarship

- 16.1 A Recipient who is taking leave from their HDR course is expected to submit the prescribed approval form in a timely manner and, where possible in advance in order to avail receiving an overpayment of their Scholarship. In circumstances where an overpayment does occur, reimbursement of the overpaid amount is required in accordance with the instructions of the University.
- 16.2 In the situation where a Recipient is overpaid an amount in excess of a full fortnightly Scholarship disbursement, the University may recover the overpayment by withholding future stipend payments at the same rate which the stipend was overpaid.

17. Confidentiality

- 17.1 The deliberations and decisions of the University and/or delegate officers and/or External Funding Party relating to allocation, selection and award of Scholarships are confidential.

18. Legal Advice

- 18.1 All Recipients are strongly recommended to seek their own independent legal advice regarding intellectual property and other contractual arrangements, both with the University and any other external parties.

19. Variation of Conditions

- 19.1 These conditions may be varied from time to time at the discretion of the Associate Deputy Vice Chancellor, Research Excellence.

20. Provision of False or Misleading Information

- 20.1 If the University knows or has reason to believe that a Recipient has provided false or misleading information to the University in relation to the Scholarship, the University will immediately:
- 20.1.1 re-assess the Recipient's Scholarship entitlements; and
 - 20.1.2 where relevant, notify the Department of Education and Training or Department of Immigration and Border Protection of the suspected offence and provide where requested, a copy of the Recipient's application and any other relevant information.

21. Specific University Obligations

- 21.1 University will abide by the Australian Code for the Responsible Conduct of Research.
- 21.2 The University will be fair and equitable in the use of its discretionary powers.
- 21.3 The right of the Recipient to appeal decisions is recognised. The University will advise Recipients of appropriate appeal mechanisms for resolution of any disputes which might arise during their candidature.
